A DECADE OF LEADERSHIP

The College celebrated Dean James J. Valentini, whose time as dean ended on June 30, with three special events throughout Spring 2022. These occasions brought together alumni, parents, faculty and staff to thank him for his service. The event at Gotham Hall raised more than $16.3 million in his honor, including gifts for the Valentini Endowment Fund for the Columbia College Journey, which supports his commitment to holistic student development by funding experiences beyond the classroom.

DEAN JOSEF SORETT

In May, President Lee C. Bollinger appointed Josef Sorett to serve as dean of Columbia College and vice president of undergraduate education. He is a professor of religion and African American and African diaspora studies, chair of the Department of Religion, and director of the Center on African-American Religion, Sexual Politics and Social Justice. He received his B.S. in health and exercise science from Oral Roberts University, his M.Div. in religion and literature from Boston University, and his Ph.D. in African American studies from Harvard University.

CORE TO COMMENCEMENT

June 30 marked the end of Core to Commencement, the College's first campaign devoted exclusively to students and the faculty who teach them. This remarkable endeavor raised more than $750 million dollars for the Core Curriculum, need-based financial aid, faculty support, student experiences beyond the classroom and renovations for student-facing spaces across campus. Thank you for participating in the final year of this campaign.

FINANCIAL AID INITIATIVE

The College launched the Financial Aid initiative in 2021. This effort makes fundraising for financial aid a priority and aims to raise $500 million by 2025. So far, alumni, parents and friends have given more than $282 million.

The Financial Aid initiative is part of a University-wide effort to raise $1.4 billion.

2021-22 AREAS OF SUPPORT

John Jay Associates provide essential support across Columbia College. They give to the Columbia College Fund to provide current-use dollars that meet the immediate needs of the College, and they invest in endowed funds that provide the College with long-term support for various priorities. This generosity creates a transformative education for students.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE FUND

Ninety-three percent of John Jay Associates gave to the College Fund this year, providing resources for the College's strategic priorities. Donations to the College Fund can be unrestricted, so they can be used where they are needed most, or directed to the Core Curriculum, financial aid, internships or student life. Donors can also provide targeted support to students by directing gifts to the College Fund Scholarships:

- Black Alumni Council Scholarship
- Columbia College Pride Scholarship
- Columbia College Women Scholarship
- LAACU Scholarship
- Young Alumni Scholarship

147 John Jay Associates made a gift to a College Fund Scholarship this year.

CORE CURRICULUM

A unifying experience for all Columbians, the Core Curriculum fosters deep conversation and analysis of enduring themes in society.

FINANCIAL AID

Full-need financial aid policies help students take advantage of all that the College has to offer, regardless of their financial circumstances.

INTERNSHIPS

Members invested in more than 100 endowed scholarships and more than 20 endowments that support the Core Curriculum, entrepreneurship, internship and research opportunities, global programs and so much more.

2021–22 IMPACT ON STUDENTS

The generosity of John Jay Associates helps Columbia College offer a transformative undergraduate experience. At the College, students are able to explore their academic interests, take advantage of meaningful opportunities and grow in a welcoming and inclusive environment.

“Throughout my time at Columbia, I have been involved with many opportunities, clubs, and organizations that align with my interests in music, neuroscience and public health — including Columbia Neuroscience Society, Research Cluster on Science and Subjectivity, Columbia University Orchestra, Multicultural Recruitment Committee, Gerald E. Thomson Undergraduate Pre-medical Program, and research through the Columbia University Global Mental Health Program and at Columbia’s Zuckerman Institute.

After graduation, I hope to work in healthcare and public health to support underserved populations.

– Phalaen Chang CC’23, Los Angeles, CA

“I interned at Joy School English, a startup based in Provo, UT, that creates and distributes English-learning apps and programs for students in foreign countries. What I gained from my time working there did not entirely come from learning fundamentals in computer science or programming, but from being part of a team of employees that use their individual specialties to produce a product that changes lives. It led me to a sincere interest in entrepreneurship and business leadership.

I took action on this interest by launching a small business with a friend. Our sustainable clothing business has impressively grown over the last year (3,500 sales), and I continue to run it with my partner, who is also a full-time college student. What I learned from my internship has helped me be a better worker, delegator and networker in my own business pursuits. I look forward to more opportunities to learn from others and be a leader in promoting sustainable, helpful products for the world.

– Aniston Eyre CC’24, Makawao, HI

2021–22 MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

I love the Core Curriculum. I've read authors and thinkers that I had only heard about, and I love learning from my classmates. I've had amazing professors, and they've worked really hard to create a space that is safe, collaborative and encouraging. I definitely believe the Core has made me a more well-rounded individual.

I hope to either become a filmmaker/screenwriter or an immigration or human rights lawyer after I graduate. I want to give back to my community.

As a first-generation, low income Latina, I want to tell our stories and make space in the mainstream for us.

– Briani Netzahuatl CC'23, Lawrenceville, GA

Knowing that Columbia would cover my expenses completely lifted a weight off of my shoulders. It is so liberating to know that I can pursue my dreams without having a financial burden nagging me every step of the way. I can give my unwavering focus to my learning and development.

I now know that I can truly pursue my passions and learn what I want to learn.

When I graduate, I hope to tell stories that count. I want to captivate, entertain, and elicit emotions. If I can connect humans through laughter, tears, and joy, then I have done my job. I want people to know that they matter and give them something that will hopefully outlive me.

– Jeremy Suh CC'24, Brookline, MA

Columbia is part of my legacy. It's part of the reason I am the person I am today and I want to show that appreciation. It's so important to show your gratitude, to help make more possible for the next generation and to continue to break down barriers.

– Thomas Chu CC'89, New York

Thomas, a consistent member of the John Jay Associates, joined the 1754 Society in 2019 with a planned gift to establish the Thomas K. Chu Scholarship Fund. He became a 1754 Society Ambassador in 2021 and helps educate fellow alumni about the impact they can have through gift planning.

Going to Columbia College opened up so many opportunities for me, by being in New York City, by connecting with many people from diverse backgrounds, and by plugging into the powerful alumni network. I want this ecosystem to continue to thrive for all our alumni and for the next generation of students.

– Lauren Dwyer CC'11, BUS'16,
New York

Lauren is a dedicated supporter of Columbia College and Columbia Athletics. She is a member of the John Jay Associates and the Women's Leadership Council, and she serves on the Columbia College Women Board and the Women's Basketball Advisory Committee.

I owe so much to Columbia not only for my education, which continues to shape my thinking and values, but also for the priceless memories and friendships — the best years of my life — when the focus was truly on absorbing as much as I could in terms of learning and life experiences. I enjoy interviewing through ARC because it keeps me connected to the Columbia community (all the way from Sri Lanka!) and I enjoy meeting the driven young people of the next generation.

– Sonia Hirdaramani CC'02,
Sri Lanka

Sonia is a member of the John Jay Associates and an active volunteer at Columbia. She serves the College as a member of the International Advisory Board, Young Leaders Council, Class Agents and Alumni Representative Committee as well as serving on the Columbia Alumni Association Board and as a Club Leader in Sri Lanka.

“Attending Columbia college was a transitional experience for me, both socially and intellectually. My freshman year exposed me to different areas of knowledge and ways to educate myself. I met and interacted with people of various expertise and backgrounds which informed the rest of my life. Especially important to my development were the classes I took and the professors I interacted with: Lawrence H. Chamberlain (later Dean Chamberlain), J. Bartlet Brebner, William Casey and C. Wright Mills. They altered my way of thinking about the world. And best of all, I met my future wife (a Barnard freshman) when I was a junior host at the freshman introductory dance.”

– Mark N. Kaplan CC'51, LAW'53, New York

Mark has been a member of the John Jay Associates for more than 45 years. He was honored with the John Jay Award in 1979 and the Alumni Medal in 1995. He is a member of the Class Agents program and previously served on the Board of Visitors.

“My four years at Columbia provided me with more than an exceptional liberal arts education. They enabled me to learn with and live among students from all over the world who, like me, valued the opportunity to study at a world-class institution in the midst of the greatest city in the world. I developed life-long relationships at Columbia, and I will always treasure my time there. My membership in the John Jay Associates is both an expression of gratitude and an attempt to share my good fortune with future generations.”

– Brent M. Rosenthal CC'77, Texas

Brent has been a member of the John Jay Associates for more than 30 years. He recently served on his class's 45th reunion committee, helping plan the in-person festivities in June.
